

Tammy Walhof, Senior Regional Organizer, Bread for the World
To Speak at Bethlehem

On Sunday, November 23 Tammy Walhof is visiting Bethlehem in conjunction with Bread for the World Sunday and World Hunger. She will speak at the 8:15 and 10:45 services on Luke 4: 14-21; "Is there good news for poor people?" and the Forum at 9:30.

Tammy Walhof's passion for justice has led her to volunteer with low-income families in the U.S., work for 6 years with her church's development and relief program in Latin America, and travel to various African countries to understand hunger and poverty there. All together, she has been in 16 countries in Central & South America, the Caribbean, and Sub-Saharan Africa. Tammy's background in public policy analysis has served her in state government and in the position she has held since 1995 with Bread for the World as Regional Organizer covering the five states of the Upper Midwest (MN, WI, IA, ND, SD).
